

COUNSELING STATEMENT

It is the policy of All for Love Adoptions, Inc. that the birth parents shall be offered to participate in counseling with a professional recommended by our office. We want you to have as much knowledge and support as is possible throughout the adoption process, which will directly benefit you.

You have the right to have at least three (3) 50 minute counseling sessions with a counselor provided by All for Love Adoptions, Inc.

The adoptive couple you choose will be responsible for any costs or fees for these counseling sessions, before the birth and/or placement, unless more is mutually agreed upon.

I have read and understand the above counseling statement and (choose one)

_____ (Initial) I wish to receive counseling as stated above and agree that I shall participate in counseling to assist, inform and support me through the adoption process.

_____ (Initial) I do not wish to receive counseling for the following reason:

Dated _____

Signature

Printed Name